

Call for book

Book title:

New trends and concepts contributing sustainable development

Editors: Agata Rudnicka, T. Bartosz Kalinowski

Content:

Suggested chapters

Introduction – editors

1. Sustainability as a concept for modern enterprises
2. The challenge of 2030 sustainable goals – business perspective
3. Innovations for sustainability – critical success factors for business
4. The issue of human rights in business
5. Sustainable supply chain management – responsibility beyond single organization
6. Energy efficient operations – best practices for improving organizational processes
7. Corporate sustainability at operational level – examples of tools and methods
8. Inclusivity as a sign of sustainable approach in business
9. Circular economy – new trend or main responsibility for business
10. Sharing beyond possessing – how business can cooperate to be more sustainable

Summary – editors

Submission Procedure

Researchers are invited to submit on or before 10.03.2018 a chapter proposal clearly explaining the topic and subject matter covered in the proposed chapter. Interested authors may receive suggestions for possible topics.

Proposals must include:

- Name(s) of each author
- short bio from each author
- Chapter Title
- Abstract (100-200 words)
- Keywords (3-5 keywords)
- Plan of the chapter covering main points discussed in the chapter (about 2-3 pages)

Send your proposals to Agata Rudnicka: agata.rudnicka@uni.lodz.pl

Authors will be notified about the status of their proposals and sent chapter guidelines.

Important Dates

Proposal Submission Deadline: 10 March 2018

Authors Notified about Proposals and sent Guidelines for authors: 20 March 2018

Authors participation in the CSR Trends 4 conference (14-15 June 2018, Łódź, Poland) –presentations of chapters, discussion the book with editors and co-authors (fee as for the Participants with a paper).

Full Chapter Submission Deadline: 30 June 2018

Full chapters will be approximately 22000 - 44000 characters in length.

Authors Notified about Chapters: 15 July 2018
